Stall Information

- All stalls are 10'X8', there is a limit of 3 juveniles or 2 adult alpacas per stall, 7 juveniles or 5 adults in a double stall.
- There is a limit of 6 stalls per farm including the farm display stall.
- It is the exhibitor's responsibility to keep the exhibition area clean at all times. Exhibitors may advertise their sales list and sell alpacas at the stalls. However, no sale of alpaca related merchandise by exhibitors will be permitted at stalls or booth.
- Stall space will be assigned first come, first serve, determined by post-mark.
- All aisles are to be kept clear for movement of traffic through tents.

Stall Sharing:

1. Both Farms A and B will need to complete their own Reservation and Halter Entry Forms.
2. Farm A should reserve and pay, with their own check or cash, for all of the stalls plus their own entries and extras.
3. Farm B should state on their Reservation Form that they are sharing with Farm A and pay, with their own check or cash, for their own entries and extras.
4. Farm B should then pay their share of the stall(s) directly to Farm A.
5. The ABWNY board members or superintendent or anyone else associated with the Western New York Alpaca Show will not be responsible for any problem or injuries that may occur when sharing stalls.

Show Information

- All Show related questions should be directed to the Show Superintendent, Cindy Vars at 607-478-5254 or email at cindy@autumnhillalpacas.com.
- No animal substitutions will be allowed from the original entry form, unless an animal becomes ill and permission is obtained from the Show Superintendent. Permission must be obtained prior to arriving at the show. There will be a $10 change fee for each change made to your show registration after payment has been made.
- The show will be run in accordance with the 2007 rules of the AOBA Alpaca Show Division Handbook. We encourage you to join the Show Division and become familiar with the handbook.
- All alpacas shall be presented for judging with a plain halter and lead rope. The handlers attire should be conservative, neat and appropriate for the class. Farm names or alpaca names can not be displayed on the exhibitor or animal during the class.
- Nursing mothers may not be accompanied in the show ring by their crias.
- All alpacas entered must be registered with the Alpaca Registry, Inc. Per 2007 AOBA Alpaca Show Division rules no pending papers will be accepted.
- All alpacas must be entered in the name of the owner as listed on the ARI Registration Certificate. Animals that are in the process of being purchased or certificates that have not been transferred must have Buyers Permission to Show Form, signed by the owner that is listed on the certificate.
- An alpaca, not in complete control by the exhibitor, may be excused from the ring by the Judge.
- There is a $60 AOBA fee for all farms that are not AOBA Show Division members. It is $60 per farm, not per animal. There is a $6 AOBA Show Division fee for every animal entered in the show, that fee is reflected in your $40.00 entry fee.
- An owner can only enter 3 alpacas per breed type, per gender, per color designation, per age division. Example: An owner can only show 3 white, huacaya, yearling, males.
- Send completed entry forms (paper or online) with a copy of ARI registration papers. Please use the most current ARI Color Chart and color rules in the AOBA Show Division Handbook to determine the color of each animal. An alpaca will not be entered if there is incomplete or missing information.
- Entries must be postmarked by May 18th, 2007 for the regular fee of $40.00 halter class & $35 fleece entry.
 - Mailed in Entries: (download forms from alpacabreedersofwny.com) Send Registration form, Check, ARI Registration Certificate, Buyers Permission to Show Form and, if applicable, a copy of the Fleece Show Entry Tag.
 - Online Registrations: (available at alpacabreedersofwny.com) Send Check, ARI Registration Certificate, Buyers Permission to Show Form and, if applicable, a copy of the Fleece Show Entry Tag.
 - Mail to: Cindy Vars Show Superintendent 3763 Barrett Rd Andover, NY 14806
